Accelerating Education through Excellence in Research

Annals of Emerging Technologies in Computing (AETiC)

Print ISSN: 2516-0281

Online ISSN: 2516-029X

Dear Authors,

Annals of Emerging Technologies in Computing \(AETiC\) is a scholarly peer-reviewed open access international research journal enabling low cost publication solutions while projecting an image of quality research. AETiC is published by the International Association for Educators and Researchers \(IAER\) which is a CIC (Community Interest Company) i.e. a low-profit organisation, registered in England and Wales.

AETiC journal is indexed in Scopus database with a projected CiteScore of 2.2, covering from 2017 till to date.

As an Open Access journal, AETiC provides a channel for quality research to be publicised to a broad audience through many major Abstracting and Indexing (A&I) databases such as: Scopus, DOAJ, Crossref, CiteFactor, Google Scholar, Microsoft Academic Search, Index Copernicus, Semantic Scholar, UlrichsWeb, and CiteSeerX.

Past issues of AETiC are made available online at AETiC website and archived at the British Library, London, UK.

Hardcopies of the journal issues are printed and distributed by Marston Book Services, a printer in Oxfordshire, UK. The Article Processing Fee (APF) also includes two copies of the journal's respective printed issues, posted to the mailing address of the corresponding author, without any additional cost.

AETiC invites authors to submit, through EasyChair Conference Management System, using AETiC's MS Word Template, their original research, review and survey papers which significantly contributes to the existing domain of research and adds new knowledge in the field of "emerging technologies" related to computing, software engineering, information technology and communications engineering.

AETiC Submission is open all year round for regular issues. For Special Issues, please refer to the respective Call for Papers (CFPs).

If you have any further queries, please feel free to let us know.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.

Kind Regards
